COURSE DESCRIPTION SOCL 2301 Introduction to Crime Studies (3)

This course focuses on the fundamentals of the causes, correlates, consequences, and controls of crime in society, including definitional and methodological issues.

Crime is a pervasive problem in society. This course is designed to provide students a broad overview of the main types, causes, controls, and consequences of crime in modern society. To prepare students for more advanced criminological coursework, the core issues of interest to criminologists and criminal justice practitioners are discussed. The emphasis in the course is to develop a basic understanding of crime, measurements of crime, particular types of modern crime, the mechanics of crime control, the US criminal justice system, and the consequences of crime control policies.

CONTENT & TRIGGER ADVISORY

Several of the materials, used in class and assigned, contain mature themes with coarse language and adult content - viewer discretion is advised. To a degree, this is the point of using these materials to better understand the idiosyncratic criminal justice system and the larger social world - learning can be an uncomfortable process. If you have specific triggers, please let me know and I will note the assignments accordingly. However, this will not release you from the knowledge needed to complete the course content. Please see the course outline for details on when subjects will be presented.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- To explore and describe basic features of the causes, correlated, consequences, and controls of crime in modern society
- To understand the types and trends of crime;
- To critically evaluate definitional and methodological issues related to crime studies;
- To become smart consumers of news reports, political rhetoric, and public discussion about crime and justice issues.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Adler, Freda, Gerhard O.W. Mueller, and William S. Laufer. 2018. Criminology. New York, NY: McGrawHill Education.

There will also be various readings assigned throughout the semester. The readings will be listed on Moodle.

COURSE WEBSITE

This course will make use of Moodle, which is accessed via the LSU homepage under "myLSU." Lecture material, assignments, quizzes, and grades will be posted on this site. Please check Moodle regularly.

In addition, I will occasionally send out emails to the class using Moodle. It is IMPERATIVE that you regularly check your email linked to your Moodle account. (By default, this is your @lsu.edu email address.) I will not accept excuses that you "did not receive and email"; Moodle tells me if all emails are sent successfully. I will also not accept the excuse that "you did not see the email." It is your responsibility to check your email often. If you have your LSU email forwarded to another email account, be sure messages are not being sent to the "junk" folder.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Formal attendance will not be taken in class as it is your responsibility to be present. HOWEVER, regular class attendance and good note-taking skills will greatly improve your odds of academic success. In addition, I reserve the right to administer quizzes and extra credit opportunities in class without prior notice. Students not present will not receive credit for extra credit opportunities, even with a valid excuse. Students who miss class are responsible for all announcements, class discussions, class notes, and changes made to the course outline during class meetings.

I WILL NOT post my power point slides on Moodle. You must come to class to see them. If you are not able to attend class on a particular day, YOU are responsible for getting notes from a classmate and it is up to YOU to find that classmate. I will not distribute my own lecture notes to students and I will not reiterate information provided in class via email. I am, however, available to discuss any course content that you need further clarification on, whether you were in class or not. I just ask that you come with specific questions regarding the content and not ask for me to simply recall the lecture.

I STRONGLY encourage you to make an appointment if you have questions about the course material, your standing in the course, or other related matters. Waiting until the end of the semester to voice problems is unacceptable. If you have issues with the course in any way, you need to see me ASAP. I WILL NOT ENTERTAIN REQUESTS FOR CURVES, EXTRA CREDIT, or THE LIKE. If you didn't do the work during the semester, why should I allow you to do "extra" work at the end of the semester? If I receive such emails, I reserve the right to ignore them.

Finally, it is important for you to respect your fellow students and me by arriving on time, not talking during lectures, and staying until the end of class. It is distracting when people are holding conversations while I am trying to speak. If you do so, I will ask you to leave the lecture. Also, please make sure your cell phones are TURNED OFF for the duration of the lecture and if you are using a laptop computer YOUR VOLUME IS TURNED OFF AND YOU ARE USING IT FOR NOTE TAKING PURPOSES ONLY. I reserve the right to revoke the use of laptops and other electronic devices in class if I feel they are being misused or distracting for other students and/or myself.

EXAMS

Your course grade will be based on three (3) exams made up of any combination of answer types including but not limited to multiple choice, matching, true/false, fill in the blank, and short answer questions drawn from lecture, videos, readings, and any other material presented in class or assigned (basically, everything is fair game). The exams will be taken in class and are worth 75% of your final grade. The first two exams will be held during regular class time. The final exam is scheduled for a date and time specified by the Office of the University Registrar. All exams will be held in our regular classroom, unless otherwise notified.

A #2 pencil, small scantron, and photo ID are required for each exam.

Tardiness is inexcusable on exam days. Students are required to be ON TIME. No new exams will be administered after the first student has completed his/her exam and has left the classroom. If you do arrive late, you will have to take a make-up essay exam or oral exam.

DO NOT MISS EXAMS. All make-up exams will be administered at my discretion and at a time and place of my choosing. If you also miss the scheduled make-up exam, you will receive a zero for your exam grade.

YOU MUST TAKE YOUR FINAL WITH YOUR CLASS SECTION AND ON THE DATE/TIME POSTED BY THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE. IF YOU MISS YOUR FINAL EXAM, YOU MUST NOTIFY ME IMMEDIATELY. I RESERVE THE RIGHT TO DENY YOU A MAKE-UP EXAM. IF I DO ALLOW YOU A MAKE-UP FINAL EXAM, 20% WILL BE DEDUCTED FROM YOUR EXAM AND I RESERVE THE RIGHT TO ADMINISTER YOUR MAKE-UP EXAM IN ESSAY OR VERBAL FORMAT.

ASSIGNMENTS

Your course grade will also be based on a number of assignments completed throughout the semester. In total, the assignments will be worth 25% of your grade. Assignments must be turned in via Moodle and Turnitin. You must turn in your assignment by the posted deadline or your score will be reduced accordingly: 20 percent will be deducted from your score immediately and until noon. Any assignment turned in after noon, will see a reduction in an additional 25% and each day (noon the next day) that passes thereafter, including weekends, until you have no more points to be deducted from your score.

If you have difficulty using turnitin and cannot upload your assignment, you MUST email a copy of your assignment AND a screen shot of the problem to me BEFORE the posted deadline to receive full credit. Otherwise, your score will be reduced as stated above. (If you do not send a screenshot, even if turned in on time, your score will be reduced by 20%.)

GRADING

Your grade will be based on three (3) exams taken throughout the semester and various assignments and quizzes associated with each chapter or assigned readings. Each exam will have equal weight (25%) for a total of 75% of your final grade. The assignments and quizzes will also be weighted equally and combined will be worth 25% of your final grade.

Your final grade will be calculated as follows:

Grading Scale: 100 – 97 = A+; 96 – 93 = A; 92 – 90 = A-89 – 97 = B+; 86 – 83 = B; 82 – 80 = B-79 – 77 = C+; 76 – 73 = C; 72 – 70 = C-69 – 67 = D+; 66 – 63 = D; 62 – 60 = D-59 – 0 = F

3 Exams- 25% each = 75% Assignments/Quizzes = 25% Total 100%

 NO ADDITIONAL GRADED WORK WILL BE ALLOWED OR ASSIGNED TO HELP BRING UP YOUR GRADE IN THIS COURSE. IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO RECOGNIZE WHAT GRADE YOU NEED/WANT IN THIS COURSE AND WORK TO ACHIEVE THAT GRADE THROUGHOUT THE SEMESTER. I WILL NOT ENTERTAIN REQUESTS FOR ADDITIONAL WORK, ESPECIALLY AT THE END OF THE SEMESTER. DO NOT ASK. I WILL NOT ANSWER YOUR EMAILS FOR SUCH REQUESTS. **

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

All Louisiana State University students are responsible for observing the highest standards of academic and personal integrity. The penalties for academic misconduct are severe andignorance is not an acceptable excuse. "Academic Misconduct' shall mean cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, and all other actions which are described in Section 8.1.C. or any act or other form of academic dishonesty or omission designed to give an unfair academic advantage to the student." All cases of suspected academic misconduct will be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students. The LSU Code of Student Conduct is available at http://saa.lsu.edu/code-student-conduct.

DISABILITY STATEMENT

In an effort to ensure full participation in all activities, programs, and services, the Office of Disability Services (ODS) at Louisiana State University is committed to providing the appropriate auxiliary aids and services for students with disabilities. The Office of Disability Services also serves as a source of disability-related information for the university. The Office of Disability Services is located in Room 115 Johnston Hall. Students with a disability (physical disability, learning disability) who require documented accommodations should speak with me as soon as possible. Students who require special testing conditions or accommodations must make arrangements through the Office of Disability Services in 115 Johnston Hall (578-5919).

* Please Note- My name is Chantel DUFRENE in the ODS system*  This syllabus is a general guideline and is subject to change at my discretion if necessary. **
